Here are a few other suggestions that might be helpful to help get the word out:

1. Announce the book to your online networks and ask people in your networks to announce to their networks
2. Visit your local bookstores and request our book
3. Contact local media about the book and at the same time promote your local group
4. Select Attached at the Heart as a book club reading and discuss
5. Visit local maternity & young children's clothing stores - if they carry books, recommend our book
6. Donate a copy to the local library
7. Give a copy to your pediatrician
8. Give copies as gifts to expectant mothers and give a copy to friends and relatives
9. Around Mother's Day and/or Father's Day have an Attached at the Heart celebration
10. Write a review for the book on Amazon.com and B&N.com - the more positive book reviews, the more chances we have to get recognition from our publisher, iUniverse, which will greatly enhance their ability to help us market the book
11. If you have an exhibit at a baby fair or other community event, consider having a few copies on hand to sell, or have on display
12. If you have a blog, or if you contribute to the API Forum or other Forums, please help us get the word out and perhaps start a discussion about the book
